Chicago Tribune.

VOL. XIX. CHICAGO, SUNDAY, JANUARY 28, 1866. NUMBER 238.

A Fiendish Fenian Conspiracy.

FENIAN GUY FAWKESES IN LONDON.

Thos. F. Meagher to be Fenian Dictator.

CANADA TO BE INVADED AND MAXIMILIAN ASSISTED.

Congress—Speech-Day in the House.

LATER FROM MEXICO.

The Liberal General Morales Several Defeated.

PROTEST OF THE FRENCH AGAINST THE OCCUPATION OF BAGDAD.

Petitions Monroe to be Placed on the War Footing.

ABOLISHMENT OF THE NATIONAL BANK CIRCULATION.

Railroad Disaster in New Jersey—Several Persons Injured.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 27.

The House met at 10 o'clock, and was called to order by the Speaker, Mr. SCHUYLER COLFAX, of Indiana, who announced the business in order to be the consideration of the resolution offered by Mr. [illegible] of Ohio, [illegible] the President [illegible] the Secretary of War [illegible] the Secretary of the Treasury [illegible] the Secretary of the Navy [illegible] the Secretary of the Interior [illegible] the Postmaster-General [illegible] the Attorney-General [illegible] the Secretary of State

Chicago Tribune.

THE DAILY, WEEKLY AND WEEKLY ...

OFFICE, NO. 51 CLARK STREET.

... Tribune ... Chicago ... Illinois ...

SUNDAY, JANUARY 26, 1868.

NATIONAL BANKS.

There has been organized to the date [illegible] national banks, with an aggregate capital of $30,000,000. The total circulation issued up this time is $26,000,000. The total amount of bonds deposited by the National ... for security of circulation is $32,000,000. The amount of circulation that may yet be issued is $27,000,000, when the whole three hundred millions prescribed by ... shall be ...

The Northern States have not yet established their system of National banks, and indeed there has not been reserved for them the portion of circulation which lawfully belongs to them. The banks of New York, Massachusetts Connecticut, Rhode Island and Pennsylvania, have managed to grab more than their ... proportion, and now have their hungry ... in Washington, badgering Congress to extend the Bank Act to enable them to increase ... circulation to three hundred millions. ... trust that Congress will consent to ... of the sort, and that not a ... more currency will be permitted to be ... except in the States now ... without banks. Under the present system ... Western States will have more ... than their ... share to spend in the Southern States establish ... banks of redemption, to the detriment ... Chicago. This is no time for greater currency. There is already too much paper money afloat now, and that is the reason that specie payment cannot be enforced. It is ... that specie will flow in when ... paper ... Our friends at the East ... to ... the ... of ... and ... to ... the ... of ... Chicago ... to ... the ... of ... Chicago ... to ... the ... of ... Chicago

Chicago Daily Tribune.

LIST OF LETTERS

Chicago Tribune.
SUNDAY, JANUARY 29, 1866.

THE CITY.

The Theaters are to be closed on Sunday next, Sept. 29 to 30, inclusive.

Northern Railroad.—An adjourned meeting of the Common Council will be held on Tuesday next, for the purpose of discussing the Act of the Legislature in relation to the Northern Railroad, recently passed at the Springfield session. A full attendance is requested.

R. S. Cruikshank.—The regular monthly meeting of the Academy of Natural Sciences will be held this evening, at the usual hour, in the Academy building, corner of Wells and Kinzie streets. Mr. Cruikshank will read a paper on a rail for elevated railroads and tramways.

The Reported Death of Gen. Dumas.—A rumor was in circulation a few days ago to the effect that Gen. Dumas had perished by the hands of some others on a plantation which he had purchased. The Memphis papers up to the 22d contain no confirmation of such a report, so that the report is probably without foundation.

Collegiate.—We invite the attention of parents and guardians to the Advertisement of Professor Quackenbos' School Catalogue Scheme, in another column, and to the list of names of gentlemen who recommend it without reservation, as unquestionably in advance of the best methods of instruction and management in all the essentials of a masculine education.

Dead.—Christian Baker, who on Thursday evening last took poison in the shape of an ounce of arsenic, for the avowed purpose of ending his existence, and who was conveyed to the Cook county hospital for treatment, died at that institution on Saturday morning. Coroner Wagner held an inquest on the remains of the deceased, and rendered a verdict in accordance with the jury rendered a verdict of "death by suicide."

Larceny of Furs.—A lad who gave his name as Jim Collins, was placed in the prisoner's dock at the Police Court yesterday morning, charged with the larceny of a box of furs from Lee Leonard, who resides on Wells street. From the police-men caught him in the act of conveying the plunder to a place of safety. He was committed in default of $500 bail.

Military Funeral.—The funeral services of Col. W. H. Bisbee, late of the 19th Regt. V. V. I., will be attended at St. Luke's Church, Tuesday, 30th inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M. Former members of the regiment, and all others who can attend, are respectfully requested to wear military emblems.

Col. Bisbee's remains have just arrived from the battle-field of Savannah, Ga.

Peter Cartwell, Esq., the Assistant Superintendent of the Reform School has left this city, to accept the position of Superintendent of the House of Refuge, in Jeffersonville, Kentucky. Mr. Cartwell has ably filled the position on which he has just left, and has gained the confidence of the officers and managers of the Reform School. His numerous friends will regret his departure, while wishing him every success in his new field.

A New Counterfeit.—Boyd Bros. showed us on Saturday, a new counterfeit—a lithographed $20 on the First National Bank of Indianapolis. It is a decent imitation, and can be detected only by the spacey of the face are all more or less blurred, and the "20" on the corners is not as clear as on the genuine bill (and, by-the-way, is about the largest "20" we have ever seen), but you have no doubt to see them to detect it.

"Private Secrets" by Wilkie.—A. S. Wells, the professed private Secretary of Detective Goodhart Baker, was on Saturday forenoon re-arraigned in the Police Court, to answer to the charge of stealing certain James Barnet's overcoat from the Matteson House, on the corner of Lake and Clark streets. He pleaded guilty to the charge, and as there has been ample opportunity for evidence to reach him, he was sentenced to the House of Correction for the period of ninety days.

Arrested.—Wm. Jones was bound in a fortunate sum of $1,000 to keep a sharp look-out for a man named Joe Lee, who is said to be a great rascal. And the way Joe Lee does carry on a variety of rascality is a caution to good people generally. Joe has been in the habit of coming to town every few days, and when he does come he does very prodigally. Joe has been in the habit of coming to town (and going) by the way of the railroad depot, and there he has been in the habit of meeting Wm. Jones, who is employed by the Illinois Central Railroad Company, at the depot. Jones has been in the habit of meeting Joe Lee, and Joe has been in the habit of getting drunk, and Jones has been in the habit of getting Joe Lee home. Joe Lee